

FEDERATION FOR CHILDREN
WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Martin Luther King Summer Scholars Initiative
The Federation for Children with Special Needs, Boston, MA
General Information & Application

The Federation for Children with Special Needs is pleased to be a non-profit partnering organization in the MLK Summer Scholars Initiative for 2017 sponsored by John Hancock Financial to support jobs for Boston teens. The internship period is for approximately 22- 25 hours per week from July 5, 2017 through August 18, 2017. Schedule to be determined. Students are required to attend four Friday Seminars (2.5 hours each) at Boston. This is a paid internship with a stipend of $1,825. Students must be Boston residents between the ages of 16-18 . For more information you can visit the MLK link: <http://www.johnhancock.com/corporateresponsibility/signatureprograms.html>

You can also visit the Federation at www.fcsn.org

Applicants should attach a one page cover letter explaining why the student wishes to be an MLK Summer Scholar and what he or she has accomplished or plans to accomplish to reflect Dr. King's philosophies.
